

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A wafer susceptor for use in a substrate processing system, comprising of at least one recess formed therein, with each recess arranged and configured to hold at least one 5 substrate therein, wherein a combination of the wafer holder and said at least one substrates form a composite substrate having uniform processing characteristics.